Research Conclave: Nurturing Young Minds Towards Research

.Fourth Session of presentation series

The N.S.S. Research Conclave, a student-teacher interactive programme has been initiated in the academic year 2018-19 under the guidance of Prin.Dr. Chandra Purkayastha with the objective of providing a platform to nurture young minds (mainly to in-house faculty members and students) towards research and innovation. It aims to provide an excellent opportunity to both teachers and students which includes presentation of original research papers or papers published in reputed international journals, discussion on topics related to research, lectures by eminent researchers, debate, etc.

The fourth session of N.S.S. Research Conclave was held on 14th March 2019. The details of the session are as follows.
