N.S.S. Research Cell: 2018-19

Research Conclave: Nurturing Young Minds Towards Research
N.S.S. Research Cell aims to cultivate research culture in the institution by promoting research in emerging and challenging areas of Commerce, Economics and Humanities including multidisciplinary fields. It encourages students and faculty members to undertake the research which enhances the general research capability by way of participating in conferences, seminars, workshops, project competition, etc. It also aims to enhance the research publications/presentations in referred journals or indexed journals and conferences.

The N.S.S. Research Conclave, a student-teacher interactive programme has been initiated in the academic year 2018-19 under the guidance of Prin.Dr. Chandra Purkayastha with the objective of providing a platform to nurture young minds (mainly to in-house faculty members and students) towards research and innovation. It aims to provide an excellent opportunity to both teachers and students which includes presentation of original research papers or papers published in reputed international journals, discussion on topics related to research, lectures by eminent researchers, debate, etc.
